

Welcome to Chef Deezie Catering. We are pleased to give you the finest cooking and baking techniques infused in our Culinary World. We've served various companies such as: The Albuquerque Journal, Intel, CNM, Private Events Weddings and A hosts of Volunteer work for the Community such as The Road Runner Food Bank, and several yearly Children Charities for Colleges giving back to the community I for you all embracing us.

We are also well known for our outstanding front of the house and Banquet service. My partner and good friend Gregg Cappetto have over 20 years experience in table settings, serving presentations and the proper handling of plate presentations.

We thrive on complimenting our patrons and their guests to make any event a wonderful experience.

Not only do we promote good well being and positive communication between you and your guests, but we strive on professional satisfaction that your meals and accommodations are met.

In order to accommodate our customers in this competitive market, we offer a two week block prior to your event date for half of the initial payment to be paid so that we can get you the freshest and most least expensive price. Please note that all sales are final since the products are usually purchased and planned ahead of time to retain the best accurate count. Please also include all children and understand that some people have more hearty appetites than expected so you may keep your customers satisfied.

So just don't wonder why we're above the rest, come join us!

Please ask about our very own and marketed Breakfast Eggrolls, and our vast menu of Variety Egg Rolls for events, meetings, parties, School Lunches or quick snacks.
